Welcome Message.

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to 4th conference of the plastic surgery department AMTH In collaboration with ESPRS AND EGCMF

This Scientific Day reflects our ongoing commitment to advancing excellence in plastic and reconstructive surgery, through continuous education, clinical innovation, and collaborative exchange. As the field continues to evolve—foundational reconstructive principles to cutting-edge regenerative therapies—we believe that such gatherings are essential to share knowledge, refine skills, and inspire progress.
